

WHITTLESEA YOUTH COMMITMENT

Measuring progress

Schools and Youth Commitment

Goal	Indicator	Data source and timing	Responsibility for data collection
learning and training environments actively re-engaging disaffected young people	1. Proportion of 16 year and 17 year olds staying in education (secondary or TAFE or other education) five and twelve months after leaving secondary school compared with State and National profiles	School admin records and survey of school leavers five and twelve months after leaving secondary school and relevant ABS Labour Force Survey data  RICHARD TEESE RESEARCH  RESEARCH BY TRANSITION BROKERS	Secondary colleges for information on current students and WYC for information on school leavers an informed community supporting the objectives of the WYC	2. Proportion of parents of school students in Years 10, 11 &amp; 12 who are aware, accept, promote and are involved in delivering the objectives of the WYC	School based survey of parents  PARENT SURVEY RESULTS	Secondary colleges deeper and sustained employer commitment to structured training and workplace learning for younger people	3. Number of &amp; percentage increase since previous year in employers providing structured work placements for secondary school students &amp; average duration of the work placements compared with State and National profiles	School records and national survey of school industry programs  NSIN RECORDS VIA NIECAP RMIT	Secondary colleges improved mobility by young people between education, training and work	4. Proportion of school leavers completing Year 12 or equivalent in the Whittlesea area compared with State and National profiles;	School records and Victorian DoE/DEET data	Secondary colleges

Strengthened integration of community service, education and employment sectors ensuring clear, seamless and signposted provision of programs and services that meet the needs of young people	5. Proportion of school leavers five months after leaving school who are aware and make use of appropriate programs and services	Survey of school leavers five months and twelve months after leaving school  RICHARD TEESE RESEARCH RESEARCH BY TRANSITION BROKERS	WYC
	6. Proportion of school leavers five months after leaving school achieving an employment and structured training outcome (apprenticeship commencement) compared with State-wide data	Survey of Whittlesea school leavers and data from Office of Training & Further Education  RESEARCH BY TRANSITION BROKERS; INGTC DATA	WYC
	7. Proportion of school leavers employed in local area compared to proportion employed outside local area five and twelve months after leaving school	Survey of school leavers five months and twelve months after leaving school  RICHARD TEESE RESEARCH RESEARCH BY TRANSITION BROKERS	WYC

	8. Proportion of school leavers who see themselves as socially competent, healthy (physically and emotionally) self reliant and engaged five and twelve months after leaving school	Survey of school leavers five months and twelve months after leaving school	WYC  NOT AVAILABLE THIS YEAR increased employment opportunities for young people	9. Young people at risk in the Whittlesea area compared with Victorian and national profiles: Proportion of school leavers who in full-time or part-time employment and not in full-time education in May of year after leaving school	Survey of school leavers five months after leaving school and ABS Labour force data RICHARD TEESE RESEARCH	WYC